A practical first-day, first-week, and first-month checklist

Document ID	HR-ONB-002
Audience	New employees and onboarding buddies
Version	1.0 — Demo
Owner	People Operations / relevant department
Status	Sample content — approval required

Important: Fictional sample company and policy pack created for OnboardIQ demonstration and ingestion testing. These documents are not legal advice and are not actual company policies. Replace with approved company content before real use.

1. Before your first day

- Confirm your joining date, reporting time, work location, manager, and point of contact.
- Complete only the identity, payroll, tax, and employment forms requested through approved HR channels.
- Review any pre-joining material and prepare questions about your role, team, and first assignments.
- Never email identity documents or banking details to an unverified contact. If unsure, verify the request with People Operations.

2. Your first day

Task	Owner	Status
Meet manager and team	Manager	To do
Confirm role goals and responsibilities	Manager	To do
Activate company account and MFA	IT / employee	To do
Set up approved laptop and tools	IT	To do
Review handbook and code of conduct	Employee	To do
Learn emergency and incident reporting routes	Manager / Security	To do

- Use a unique password and enable multi-factor authentication wherever available. Do not share your account with a teammate or support person.

3. Your first week

- Schedule a 1:1 with your manager to discuss responsibilities, current priorities, success measures, and how work is assigned.
- Meet key teammates and identify the people who own HR, IT, Security, Finance, and department processes.
- Complete mandatory training assigned to your role.
- Confirm access to repositories, project tools, knowledge bases, and shared drives. Request only the permissions needed for your job.
- Learn how to ask for help, escalate blockers, record work, and communicate availability.

4. Your first 30 days

- Agree on a 30-day learning plan with your manager and review progress regularly.
- Complete an initial task with appropriate review and feedback.
- Understand team conventions, quality expectations, documentation standards, and release or approval processes.
- Ask your manager which goals should be prioritized if several tasks compete for attention.
- Share feedback on onboarding material that is missing, confusing, or outdated.

5. Key terms

Term	Meaning
MFA	Multi-factor authentication: an additional verification step for sign-in.
Service Desk	The approved channel for technical support and access requests.
Knowledge base	A searchable collection of approved company documents and guidance.
Least privilege	Giving a user only the access needed for their responsibilities.
Escalation	Routing an issue to the team or person authorized to resolve it.

6. Onboarding checklist

- I know who my manager and onboarding buddy are.
- I can sign in securely and have MFA enabled.
- I know how to request access and technical support.
- I have reviewed the relevant company policies and required training.
- I understand my initial responsibilities and how success will be reviewed.
- I know where to report a security incident or workplace concern.
